

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Administration for Children and Families
Office of Family Assistance

www.fatherhood.gov

RESOURCES FOR VETERANS AND MILITARY FAMILIES

There are many organizations, both Federal and private that offer assistance and support to military families. Below are some of these organizations and resources with resources for military families, as well as ways for others to support them.

National Resource Directory (compiled by Defense, Labor and Veterans Affairs Departments)

- <https://www.nationalresourcedirectory.org>

Screening for Mental Health – Free Online PTSD Self-Assessment (English & Spanish)

- <https://www.militarymentalhealth.org>

Military Child Education Coalition

- www.militarychild.org

National Military Family Association

- www.nmfa.org

Zero to Three

- www.zerotothree.org

Military One Source

- <http://www.militaryonesource.com/>

Department of Defense Website for Families

- <http://www.militaryhomefront.dod.mil/>

Air Force Website for Families

- <http://www.afcrossroads.com/>

Navy and Marine Website for Families

- <http://www.lifelines.navy.mil/lifelines>

Army Website for Families

- <http://aos.myarmylifetoo.com/skins/aos/>

Website for Veterans

- www.va.gov

USA Together

<https://usatgether.org>

AdoptAPlatoon

- <http://www.adoptaplatoon.org/new>

Adopt-A-Soldier Now

- <http://www.adoptasoldiernow.org>

Adopt-a-Solider Platoon, Inc.

- <http://www.adoptasoldierplatoon.org>

The American Legion

- <http://www.legion.org/veterans>

Angels 'n Camouflage

- <http://www.angelsncamouflage.org>

Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America

- <http://communityofveterans.org>

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks

- <http://www.elks.org/Vets/AdoptAVeteran.cfm>

Operation Forever Free

- <http://operationforeverfree.org>

Rebuild Hope

- <http://www.rebuildhope.org>

Soldiers' Angels

- <http://soldiersangels.org>

Take Time to Be a Dad Today