NRFC Webinar Series

Employment and Economic Stability Services for Fathers

Resources

January 20, 2016

Many fathers who participate in fatherhood programs are looking for assistance in the areas of employment and economic stability. The National Responsible Fatherhood Clearinghouse webinar – Employment and Economic Stability Services for Fathers – discussed strategies and resources that can help low-income fathers gain new employment skills, find better jobs, and improve their overall financial situation.

The following resources may be helpful for fatherhood programs and fathers.

DHHS/ACF/Office of Family Assistance:
- Within Reach: Strategies for Improving Family Economic Stability -- A free online toolkit with advice on how organizations can organize their services and strengthen partnerships to help low-income program participants improve their economic stability. The toolkit was developed for Healthy Marriage and Responsible Fatherhood programs by the Office of Family Assistance and their technical assistance team.

NRFC (www.fatherhood.gov):
- For Your Fathers: Economic Stability/Employment

DHHS/ACF/Office of Planning, Research, and Evaluation (OPRE):
- Pathways for Advancing Careers and Education (PACE) – an ongoing nine-site study to identify the most promising strategies for increasing self-sufficiency of economically disadvantaged adults and families.
- Employment Strategies for Low Income Adults: Evidence Review – a searchable database to help identify strategies to assist workers in finding and keeping jobs. The site provides an assessment of 300+ employment and training programs.
- Career Pathways – a hub for information about career pathways research, including PACE and the Health Profession Opportunity Grants (HPOG).
- Testing the Next Generation of Subsidized Employment Programs – information about the Subsidized and Transitional Employment Demonstration (STED) and Enhancing Transitional Jobs Demonstration (ETJD).
